POISON SEEPED THROUGH CAVITY INTO INTESTINAL REGION

By CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, Feb. 26.—The condition of President Ebert is serious and he may not live during the night, the United Press has learned. His wife and other relatives have been called to his bedside. The above report as to his condition is based on a bulletin dated 1 p. m. today.

Whether or not the president lives depends on the ability of the doctors to restore activity to the intestines. His condition at this hour (10:40 a. m.) is very serious. The bulletin reported that peritonitis had set in following the attack of appendicitis and subsequent operation.

Symptoms first became apparent Tuesday when the general condition of the patient caused apprehension. Dr. Beyer and colleagues confirmed the United Press information that his present condition was extremely serious.

President Ebert may die in 24 hours unless the doctors can counteract the poison in his system. The appendix broke before the operation and surgeons found a hole half the size of a cent which permitted poison to seep through the cavity and run into the intestines and beyond.

CONFERENCE OF DOCTORS

New York, Feb. 26.—The White Star liner Adriatic, bound for the Mediterranean, with 500 passengers aboard, went aground here today on the south bank in the upper bay. Captain F. E. Ednell of the White Star summoned a fleet of tugs to get the vessel off and five hours were consumed in jarring her loose from the mud bank.

Only the coming of high tide eventually permitted the ship to slip away. No damage is reported. The accident happened in a dense fog as the Adriatic was slowly feeling her way out of the harbor. As soon as released she proceeded on her voyage.

She told a straightforward story that left little doubt in the minds of the jurors. Mary broke down completely and wept on hearing the verdict.

TWO-YEAR FAST IS BEGUN BY CHICAGO MAN

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Harold G. O. Holck, 33, today started a fast which will last two years. He will diet, eating only when hungry, and then partaking of very little food. A medical student himself, Holck is interested in seeing how much food is actually needed for keeping thinking.

"I will pay no attention to ordinary meal schedules," Holck said. "Every ounce I eat will be measured, mental tests will be given me to see how accurate I am at multiplication examples, puzzle problems and type-writing accuracy."

For the past two years Holck has carried a folding scale with him to determine how much food he normally ate. Mental tests taken during this period showed his normal efficiency and mentality.

Heavy meals being taboo during the next two years, he will take the same test, and compare his efficiency while fasting to his efficiency while gormandizing.

At the end of the two-year period, the ideal ration for mankind may be worked out, Holck said.

The rumble of gunfire can be heard distinctly at Tsaribrod, a Jugo-Slav border town, and Bulgarian refugees arriving in Jugo-Slavia are quoted as saying the revolution has begun. The fighting across the border from Tsaribrod, however, may be only an isolated skirmish between government troops and malcontents.

BACK TO PRISON

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—Earl Main, held after the shooting of Miss Carlos Egge by "Butch" Carling, may go to state's prison.

Herman Vall, captain of detectives, said Main was out on parole. One condition was that he refrain from associating with bad companions. Carling is still at Central station and has refused to give any reason for the shooting.

Funeral arrangements for the girl have been completed.

Peking, Feb. 26.—Ambassadors Kikhan of Russia and Yoshizawa of Japan met here today and exchanged informal ratifications of their respective governments to the new Russo-Japanese treaty, which to all practical intents becomes effective immediately. The formal ratifications, however, will not take place until next month.

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 26.—Fire destroyed five stores and two residences in Robbinsdale shortly after midnight, doing damage of over $100,000. Dozens of families in scanty attire fled to the street in the frigid weather.

The Robbinsdale fire department was inadequate to cope with the flames and Minneapolis was summoned, turning out with seven pieces of apparatus and 45 firemen led by Fire Chief C. W. Ringer.

There was a lack of water. Three thousand feet were laid to Crystal lake to tap that reservoir. During the fire every light in town went out.

HAUGEN FARM RELIEF BILL IS AMENDED, PASSED

Washington, Feb. 26.—The Haugen farm relief bill in its modified form as amended by the Dickinson amendment passed the house by a vote of 284 to 95. The new measure omits federal control and supervision of cooperative marketing associations. There is a provision, however, that such activities be under supervision of a federal cooperative marketing board and advisory council.

COUPLE, WED 45 YEARS.
REMARIED BECAUSE CLERGYMAN ERRED

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—Forty-five years ago Joseph Varty, Mound, Minn., was married to Ida Michels.

But the clergyman made an error so yesterday Joseph Varty and his wife took out a new license and were married all over again.

Mrs. Varty is 61 years old now but when she was married she was under age. A marriage license was issued at that time with the proviso that the clergyman return it with the consent of the girl's parents after the wedding.

Last week Mr. Varty found that the clergyman had failed to do this and so his marriage was illegal. The Vartys have two sons, a daughter and seven grandchildren.

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 26.—A crushing defeat is in prospect for the child federal amendment, taken up by special order in the house this afternoon.

Indications are that 85 votes are against ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment and the most that can be claimed by optimists as in its favor are 44 votes.

The house public welfare committee held hearings and the principal support accorded came from the Minnesota State Federation of Labor and various welfare societies.

The farmers are solidly against it. Heated debates, a score of them, took place today.

Bus Regulation
The house committee on railways and transportation had its final hearing on bus bills, one proposed by attorneys of the railways, and the other drawn by lawyers for the bus companies. Prospects are that a compromise measure is to be drawn and submitted.

Marriage Laws
In the senate agrees to the house bill, parties applying for a marriage license will have to wait seven days for its issuance. The bill providing for a revision of the marriage code originally prohibited common law marriages, and increased the fee for licenses from $2.25 to $4. These provisions were ordered stricken out. The revised bill, somewhat similar to the bill passed in many other states, passed the house by a vote of 78 to 42.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT LEAGUE MEETING

Program Given at First Meeting of the Year is Greatly Enjoyed

COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS

President Mrs. Herbert Urged Every Resident of N. E. Brainerd to Help With Work

The largest gathering that ever attended a meeting of the Northeast Brainerd Improvement League was present at the first session of the year at the Lowell school Tuesday evening. Chairs were placed in all available space in the large assembly room and every seat was taken.

The program given before the business session was greatly enjoyed and declared by many to be the best ever put on by the league.

The piano solos by Harry Fitzsimmons were very good, as was the recitation "The Tomato Can" by Roxer Callahan. Mrs. Rooks and Miss Seigel gave a pleasing duet, and the solo by Miss Haake was equal to the rest of the program.

The "Hidden Secrets" as told by Madam Kuyat Rhumyar disclosed many of the probably happenings in the coming spring election and some interesting things that may be done in Northeast Brainerd.

"Why We Never Married" as told by six maids and six bachelors caused one laugh after another and came to a grand climax when there was a group proposal and acceptance in song as they marched out to the tune of "Here Come the Brides." The costumes were typical of those worn by maids and bachelors who had failed in their one desire. The cast of characters follows:

Marmaduke Witherspoon—Alfreda Zawadski.

Violetta Van Dyke—Mardel Johnson.

Horace Hornblower—Maud Hill.

Cornelia Peachblossom—Carmella Herbert.

Bernon Bluewater—Margaret Johnson.

Arabella Specklewottle—May Tierney.

Adolphus Slowboy—Lillian Jergensen.

Seraphina Slowcomer—Mamie Albers.

Algernon Addleplate—Avis Kelly.

Theodosia Seriggenbottom—Mildred Harrington.

Reginald Doodlittle—Helen Siegel.

Samantha Everyyoung—Myrtle Haake.

Band Director—Mary Seigel.

The selections by the Slick and Flapper band were original and added much to the entertainment of the evening. The following songs were sung:

First Song

Over the top we're going friends
We'll sing another song,
Sing it with the spirit
That will help the League along.
Sing it as we ought to sing it

Two Hundred Strong

While we boost for East Brainerd.
What's the matter with this league,
We're good stuff,
Our ward is one of the best in town
That's no bluff.

No better people ever grew
We hate to brag, but we know it's true.
What's the matter with this league
We're fine stuff.

Third Song

We came up tonight to the school,
Maggie
To the Improvement League you know,
We find here the same old crowd,
Maggie

That always seem to go.
Richard Isles and Hugo Kaatz, Maggie
And others yet unsung.
They worked for the ward, you know,
Maggie

When the Improvement League was young
And now you are president tonight,
Maggie
We hope you will make things buzz,
Maggie

And keep the League always young.
Last but not least on the program
Was two selections by the League
Male quartet composed of Hugo A. Kaatz, F. G. Dreiling, E. L. Dahl and Richard Ilse. Mrs. F. M. Kelly very ably presided over the program. Much credit for the program is due Mrs. Herbert.

President Mrs. J. H. Herbert gave an interesting and inspiring talk on the past record of the league and on the prospects for the coming year. She asked for the whole-hearted cooperation of every resident of the Third ward in making this the cleanest and most beautiful ward in the city. She explained briefly what a certain section of Des Moines had done along these lines.

Secretary Hugo Kaatz reported action had been taken to secure a package mail box at the corner of Second avenue and A street.

A committee composed of Richard Ilse, Wm. Daugherty and Dan Chord is to make necessary arrangements and set a date for holding a political caucus for the Third ward in the hose house. This meeting will be for every voter in the ward and will discuss matters pertaining to the coming city election.

A committee composed of Albert O. Anderson, George A. Cain and C. W. Koering are to confer with a committee of the Chamber of Commerce regarding the county fair.

The following standing committees were announced:

Education and Recreation—Mrs. J. Koyol, Mrs. Clyde MacDonald and Mrs. Wm. Daugherty.

Finance and Membership—E. L. Dahl.

Ward Improvement—Hugo Kaatz. Streets and Boulevards—Oscar E. Swanson.

Publicity and Social Welfare—Albert O. Anderson.

The last four will name their co-workers later.

USE SULPHUR TO HEAL YOUR SKIN

Broken Out Skin and Itching Eczema Helped Over Night

For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Menthosulphur and improvement shows next day.

Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Menthosulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.

Get a small jar of Rowles Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Adv't.

ST. FRANCIS LENTEN RULES

Laws Covering Fasts, Abstinence, Exemptions and Patronal Feasts of the Catholic Church

EASTER SUNDAY APRIL 12

Lent Began Ash Wednesday, February 25, and Ends at Noon on Holy Saturday, April 11th

St. Francis Catholic church will observe the Lenten season with the usual regulations. There will be evening services each Sunday, Wednesday and Friday at 7:30 o'clock, with instruction or sermon at each service. The usual masses will be observed every morning. Everyone is welcome to these services.

Following are the Lenten regulations and should be strictly observed:

Lent begins Ash Wednesday, February 25th, and ends 12 o'clock noon, on Holy Saturday, April 11th.

The Fast of Lent

All days of Lent, Sundays excepted, are fast days. The law of fast obliges:

In conscience and under pain of sin.

It permits only one full meal a day, which may be taken either at noon or in the evening. (Can. 1251, Sec. 2.)

It allows something to be taken at breakfast and the luncheon of noon, or at supper. The quantity and quality of food, excepting meat, is that determined by our approved custom. (Can. 1251, Sec. 1.)

It allows at the same meal fish, oysters and other seafood on days when meat is permitted. (Can. 1251, Sec. 2.)

Exemptions From the Law of Fast

The following are exempted from the obligation of fasting:

All persons under 21 years of age. Those who have completed their 59th year.

The sick and the convalescent. Those who cannot fast without injury to their health, as women bearing, and nursing mothers. Persons in doubt should consult confessors.

The Law of Abstinence

The law of abstinence forbids on certain days the use of meat and soups and gravies made of meat.

It obliges all who have passed their seventh birthday.

Considering a special indulgent for the United States, it forbids meat on all Wednesdays and Fridays, Ember Saturday, March 7th, and Holy Saturday, April 11th. (Indulgent S. C. Conc. 4 Jan. 1919.)

It obliges those dispensed from fasting, unless also dispensed from abstinence.

It permits the use of butter, cheese, milk and eggs.

It allows dripping, lard or any condiment or seasoning made from the fat of animals. (Can. 1250.)

It allows, owing to Papal Indult, the use of meat for those serving in the army and navy on all days except Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and the forenoon of Holy Saturday.

The Laws of Fast and Abstinence Together

All Wednesdays and Fridays of Lent, Ember Saturday, March 7th, and the forenoon of Holy Saturday, April 11th, are days of fast and abstinence. No meat is permitted on these days, but one full meal and collations are allowed as on days of abstinence.

Special Exemption for Working People

By reason of a Papal Indult, working men and their families enjoy the following permission:

The use of flesh meat once a day on all fast and abstinence days throughout the year, except all Fridays, Wednesday of Holy week, Ash Wednesday, Holy Saturday until noon, and the Vigil of Christmas. This Indult does not dispense from the Lenten obligation of fasting where such exists.

A dispensation is hereby granted those parishers from the law of fast and abstinence on the Feast of the Patron Saint (Titular) of the parish church where it is observed on a week-day, with solemnity and attended by a large concourse of people. (Can. 1245, Sec. 2.)

Priests and Confessors Can Dispense

All priests having the faculties of the diocese, either in the confessional or outside the sacred tribunal, are hereby authorized to dispense in particular cases with the law of abstinence or fast, or both. (Can. 1245, Sec. 2.)

Paschal Time or Reason for Easter Duty

In virtue of a Papal Indult granted to the United States, the Paschal time is hereby extended from the first Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday, inclusive. (Pope Pius VIII, 1830.)

"U" SURVEY INDICATES BETTER HOG PRICES

That a period of profitable prices for swine producers is just around the corner is the opinion of E. F. Ferrin of the animal husbandry division, University of Minnesota, who has been collecting figures on the Minnesota hog population and finds that there are about one-fifth fewer hogs on the farms of Minnesota now than at the corresponding time in 1924.

"Far from now having a surplus of pork the state is entering upon a period of hog shortage," says Mr. Ferrin. "The sows farrowing in the spring of 1925 will be decidedly decreased in numbers. According to estimates which I have obtained, the average of brood sows for southern Minnesota appears to be 18 per cent less than for the spring of 1924, while the remainder of the state shows a 14 per cent decrease. Considering this estimate as fairly accurate, it is logical to assume that the 1925 spring pig crop will be about one-sixth smaller than the number farrowed in 1924. Thus, instead of a surplus, there promises in Minnesota to be less than the normal number of pigs raised. Other corn belt states probably show similar decreases."

Professor Ferrin's figures are backed up by a survey made by the Federal Department of Agriculture. This survey indicated a decrease on Jan. 1, 1925, of 18 per cent in the number of swine on Minnesota farms as compared with Jan. 1, 1924.

The corn-hog ratio is being equalized, Professor Ferrin said. "If corn on southern Minnesota farms is taken at the January farm price basis of 90 cents a bushel, hogs should be worth about $10.50 per hundred-weight in order to pay for their feed. They are not far away from this value on farms at present, with good prospects of a favorable corn-hog ratio in the near future."

USE SULPHUR TO HEAL YOUR SKIN

Broken Out Skin and Itching Eczema Helped Over Night

For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Mentho-Sulphur and improvement shows next day.

Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Mentho-Sulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.

Get a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.—Advt.

ST. FRANCIS LENTEN RULES

Laws Covering Fasts, Abstinence, Exemptions and Patronal Feasts of the Catholic Church

EASTER SUNDAY APRIL 12

Lent Began Ash Wednesday, February 25, and Ends at Noon on Holy Saturday, April 11th

St. Francis Catholic church will observe the Lenten season with the usual regulations. There will be evening services each Sunday, Wednesday and Friday at 7:30 o'clock, with instruction or sermon at each service. The usual masses will be observed every morning. Everyone is welcome to these services.

Following are the Lenten regulations and should be strictly observed:

Lent begins Ash Wednesday, February 25th, and ends 12 o'clock noon, on Holy Saturday, April 11th.

The Fast of Lent
All days of Lent, Sundays excepted, are fast days. The law of fast obliges:

In conscience and under pain of sin.

It permits only one full meal a day, which may be taken either at noon or in the evening. (Can. 1251, Sec. 2.)

It allows something to be taken at breakfast and the luncheon of noon, or at supper. The quantity and quality of food, excepting meat, is that determined by our approved custom. (Can. 1251, Sec. 1.)

It allows at the same meal fish, oysters and other seafood on days when meat is permitted. (Can. 1251, Sec. 2.)

Exemptions From the Law of Fast
The following are exempted from the obligation of fasting:

All persons under 21 years of age. Those who have completed their 59th year.

The sick and the convalescent. Those who cannot fast without injury to their health, as women bearing, and nursing mothers. Persons in doubt should consult confessors.

The Law of Abstinence
The law of abstinence forbids on certain days the use of meat and soups and gravies made of meat.

It obliges all who have passed their seventh birthday.

Considering a special indulgent for the United States, it forbids meat on all Wednesdays and Fridays, Ember Saturday, March 7th, and Holy Saturday, April 11th, (Indult. S. C. Conc. 4 Jan. 1919.)

It obliges those dispensed from fasting, unless also dispensed from abstinence.

It permits the use of butter, cheese, milk and eggs.

It allows dripping, lard or any condiment or seasoning made from the fat of animals. (Can. 1256.)

It allows, owing to Papal Indult, the use of meat for those serving in the army and navy on all days except Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and the forenoon of Holy Saturday.

The Laws of Fast and Abstinence Together
All Wednesdays and Fridays of Lent, Ember Saturday, March 7th, and the forenoon of Holy Saturday, April 11th, are days of fast and abstinence. No meat is permitted on these days, but one full meal and collations are allowed as on days of abstinence.

Special Exemption for Working People
By reason of a Papal Indult, working men and their families enjoy the following permission:

The use of flesh meat once a day on all fast and abstinence days throughout the year, except all Fridays, Wednesday of Holy week, Ash Wednesday, Holy Saturday until noon, and the Vigil of Christmas. This Indult does not dispense from the Lenten obligation of fasting where such exists.

A dispensation is hereby granted those parishes from the law of fast and abstinence on the Feast of the Patron Saint (Titular) of the parish church where it is observed on a week-day, with solemnity and attended by a large concourse of people. (Can. 1245, Sec. 2.)

Priests and Confessors Can Dispense
All priests having the faculties of the diocese, either in the confessional or outside the sacred tribunal, are hereby authorized to dispense in particular cases with the law of abstinence or fast, or both. (Can. 1245, Sec. 2.)

Paschal Time or Reason for Easter Duty
In virtue of a Papal Indult granted to the United States, the Paschal time is hereby extended from the first Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday, inclusive. (Pope Pius VIII, 1830.)

"U" SURVEY INDICATES
BETTER HOG PRICES

That a period of profitable prices for swine producers is just around the corner is the opinion of E. F. Ferrin of the animal husbandry division, University of Minnesota, who has been collecting figures on the Minnesota hog population and finds that there are about one-fifth fewer hogs on the farms of Minnesota now than at the corresponding time in 1924.

"Far from now having a surplus of pork the state is entering upon a period of hog shortage," says Mr. Ferrin. "The sows farrowing in the spring of 1925 will be decidedly decreased in numbers. According to estimates which I have obtained, the average of brood sows for southern Minnesota appears to be 18 per cent less than for the spring of 1924, while the remainder of the state shows a 14 per cent decrease. Considering this estimate as fairly accurate, it is logical to assume that the 1925 spring pig crop will be about one-sixth smaller than the number farrowed in 1924. Thus, instead of a surplus, there promises in Minnesota to be less than the normal number of pigs raised. Other corn belt states probably show similar decreases."

Professor Ferrin's figures are backed up by a survey made by the Federal Department of Agriculture. This survey indicated a decrease on Jan. 1, 1925, of 18 per cent in the number of swine on Minnesota farms as compared with Jan. 1, 1924.

The corn-hog ratio is being equalized, Professor Ferrin said. "If corn on southern Minnesota farms is taken at the January farm price basis of 90 cents a bushel, hogs should be worth about $10.50 per hundred-weight in order to pay for their feed. They are not far away from this value on farms at present, with good prospects of a favorable corn-hog ratio in the near future."

HEART SET ON AIDING CHURCH

A SIDE of the late Judge Clifton A. Allbright not known by many is the deep interest he took in his church. The period in the fall of the year, when he was first stricken with the malady which eventually claimed him, is reflected in the philosophy of the opening paragraph of this letter he wrote a friend appealing for church aid:

"The past year has been an eventful period in my life. I had never taken life very serious, and my good fortune in having life, health and happiness were taken for granted. I was thoughtless. I had many things to be grateful for which I did not realize. I hope I appreciate more fully than before the wonders of our existence and how much life means. I know I do not fully appreciate my opportunities, but I do hope I can see more in life than ever before.

"During my sickness I spent much time in thought—I had little else to do. It has changed my ideas in connection with many things. The span of life does not appear so long and I realize more fully that it is a slender thread that holds life.

"I know that this has little to do with raising funds for the First Congregational church, but I thought it might interest you. I realize you are a busy, thoughtful and careful man and that you do not act without definite purpose, for which I admire you and respect you. I know that there is a wide difference of opinion as to how such institutions should be supported, maintained and contributions made, but I hope you have a warm spot in your heart for our church.

"You know our history, and must have a kindly feeling for us. I am confident you enjoy thinking you are closely identified with our church. I believe it will give you real pleasure. Our minister is a good man, conscientious and appreciated. I fully believe you feel more at home in our church than you could in another.

"It is hard to urge another what to do in matters of this kind, and I hope you will take my letter in the spirit in which it is written, friendly and earnest. You know more pleasure is received in doing a kindness during life than in leaving an estate after death. No matter how carefully planned a bequest may be, is it not better to personally direct and supervise a gift during life than leave its direction to others after you are gone? This is not an appeal for sympathy but an earnest statement for thought and consideration.

"You may think I am as garrulous as an old woman, but we are noted for being a social animal and I know of no one I could better talk to than you. You are a good listener and I believe sympathetic, and if I can assist the trustees of the church in solving the problem of finances, I shall feel glad. I hope you will feel like responding.

"In conclusion I hope I have interested you. There remains and probably always will be plenty of work for the church. It requires both workers and financiers; one is as important as the other, and fortunate indeed is the church able to command both freely. I hope and trust I may do my part."

CALIFORNIA WRITTEN UP BY "LIFE"

"LIFE" has turned out a special "California" number which in a gentle way satirizes that state and the proclivity of its native sons as well as adopted ones to harp on its beautiful climate. Reading its pages ought to bring balm to the soul of the editor of the Duluth News Tribune who raises goose flesh on his spine every time some one lauds California and indirectly gives Minnesota a poke.

We maintain, and so does every loyal Minnesotan, that when it comes to climate, we have a superior article. We admit, however, that it does rain occasionally and the thermometer may skip down in the nether regions below the zero point. Our summers are incomparable.

California, on the other hand, brags about 100 per cent sunshine the year around and any citizen, as pictured by "Life," who opens an umbrella on a watery or moist day (we won't say rainy day) incurs the wrath of all true Californians and is regarded as a weather traitor.

It will be well worth your time to study the pages of "Life's" special number. "Life" comments: "When they make better sunshine, California will have it." And again, "It takes ten minutes of California sunshine to turn an unbeliever into a booster." "All's fair in love, war and the California weather reports."

Otis C. Little writes on what they ask you in different California cities:

"In Los Angeles: How much did you plan to pay for a home?"
"In San Francisco: Don't you simply love this fog of ours?"
"In Oakland: But haven't we told you that this is a most unusual season?"

"In San Diego: How much did you drop at Tia Juana?"
"In San Quentin: How's bootlegging outside now?"

A NEW thing in parliamentary proceedings is the revolt staged by 15 Democratic state senators of Indiana. They objected to a new gerrymander bill and exhausted all resources, vocal, legal, etc., during the day and at night took a bus and fled the state to Ohio, in order to escape voting. The doorkeeper of the senate has been instructed to bring them back. Ohio claims there is no extradition law to compel their return to Indiana. We wonder if they can continue to draw their salary by so absenting themselves.

THE case of Arthur Lopez, young Mexican who for more than a year posed as Arthur Frazier, dead World war soldier, then is alleged to have admitted the deception by confession and shortly after denied his confession, will now go to the federal grand jury.

THE name of "Anchorage," a southern Alaska town, gives the impression of peace and security. Notwithstanding its cognomen it has been shaken by earthquakes severe enough to tumble hospital patients out of their beds.

THE cold wave came on schedule as predicted by the weather bureau.

Auvergne Hills Traced to Volcanic Upheavals

Although the hills of Auvergne in France do not rise to the altitude of the Alps or the Pyrenees, they have peculiar characteristics of their own. They were born and molded amid great volcanic upheavals. The ice king may govern the glaciers, but here the fire king has reigned, says the Springfield Republican.

The Monts-Dore are one long chain of linked volcanoes, now as dead as the mountains in the moon. Nearly sixty gaping craters may still be counted. Even the Monts Dore and the Cantal hills, whose cone-shaped summits, the highest in Auvergne, stand out so impressively in the distance, are but the time-worn ruins of huge volcanoes.

All the country round about bears lasting traces of its dramatic past; beds of lava hidden by the fresh, green turf; dark pillars, like the famous "Orgues de Bort"; giants' causeways; odd dikes that might be dusky Druid stones; "sucs" and "puys" that might be the pustules of a fever-stricken earth—such are the features which give this central region a strange individuality that has been further intensified by the hand of man.

Twelfth Night Customs Kept Up in England

Many strange and curious rites and customs have long been connected with the observance of Twelfth night. Twelfth night is the evening before Epiphany, the 6th of January, also called Twelfth tide and Old Christmas day.

In England the principal rite of the evening is the cutting of the "bean cake"—a cake in which a bean is cooked, the finder of which is made the king of the night and the following day.

It was in commemoration of this custom that Robert Baddely, an English comedian of the eighteenth century, who was long a favorite at the Drury Lane theater, made one of the strangest bequests on record.

Baddely died in 1794, and in his will he bequeathed his cottage to a theatrical fund, requesting that a sum of three pounds be annually expended on a cake, to be cut on Twelfth night, in the Green room of the Drury Lane theater, and divided among the actors and actresses.

Great Naval Station

Malta has an area of 118 square miles and a population of 224,680. This includes the neighboring islands of Gozo and Comino. Malta was annexed to Great Britain, with the free will of the Maltese, in 1814 by the treaty of Paris. It has an elected legislature, but there are certain reserved matters, such as war, treaties, foreign trade, etc., which are dealt with by the governor and executive council. Exports include potatoes and other vegetables, oranges, cummin seed, goats and sheep, cotton goods and stone. The distance of Malta from New York is about 4,300 miles. This group of islands is situated in the Mediterranean sea, 60 miles from Sicily, 140 miles from the European mainland and 180 miles from Africa. It has a magnificent natural harbor at Valetta and an ideal situation as a coaling station and center of Mediterranean commerce. It is England's premier naval station in that sea.

River "Rafts" Nuisances

One of the most remarkable of the Mississippi rafts began forming in the Atchafalaya, a lower arm of the river, in 1778. By 1816 it had become 10 miles long, more than 600 feet in width, about eight feet deep, and had become solid enough to support a growth of trees, some of which were 60 feet in height. Finally the state of Louisiana had to remove the obstruction at great expense, the work occupying four years.

The United States government has since that time removed a raft which blocked the channel of the Red river for 45 miles.

Demonstration Sought

A tramp called at the house of a blunt farmer and asked for food and old clothes.

"You appear to be a stout, hearty-looking man," said the farmer; "what do you do for a living?"

"Why, not much," replied the fellow, "except travel about from one place to another."

"Travel about, ha!" rejoined the farmer; "can you travel pretty well?"

"Oh, yes," returned the beggar, "I'm pretty good at that."

"Well, then," said the farmer, "let's see you travel."

Fortified

One Sunday morning a southern pastor noticed a new attendant at the services.

When the meeting was over the preacher made it his business to speak to the newcomer.

"Rastus," he said, "this is the first time I have seen you at church for a long time. I'm mighty glad to see you here."

"I had to come," replied Rastus, "I needs strengthenin'. Ise got a job whitewashin' a chicken coop and buildin' a fence around a watermelon patch."

The Only Way

"I was only acting the part of peace-maker."

Magistrate—But you knocked the man senseless!

Prisoner—I did. There was no other way to get peace.

Some Peculiar Cognomens Assumed by Pugilists

Johnny Dundee's name is Joseph Carron. Johnny Wilson's is John Pancia. Paul Doyle was christened Paul Filippio. Andy Chaney is in the birth records as Andrew Kwasnik. Nobody would ever connect Oscar Tobler with Willie Jackson, nor could Vincenzo Agati become reconciled with Jimmy O'Gatty.

Pancho Villa's success started an exodus of Filipinos to this country. The names of some that sound like centers of population are listed above, and Elinor Flores is another. Mike Ballerino came from the islands in the Pacific ocean, too. Luis Firpo, Juan Carlos Casta and Luis Vincenzini came up from South America.

France made boxing history by sending forth Georges Carpentier, Eugene Criqui, Marcel Moreau, Charley Ledoux and the strangest of all, Battling Siki. All are "busted" idols now, but they, each in turn, added to the gay whirl of the game that was reconciled only with the Irish.

Men of Celtic origin have not been pushed completely out of the milling hordes for prestige won by fists and the elusive dollar, however. One is the champion of all champions, the marvel of his time, Jack Dempsey. Mickey Walker, Mike McTigue and Gene Tunney are others. But they are alone. Their challengers are Greeks, Italians, Germans and one for Tunney is a Mexican.

Champions Get Call on Western Pitching Star

For Hack Miller, utility infielder, and Dad Hankins, a pitcher, the Washington baseball club, as the result of a deal announced by President Griffith, will obtain an option on a young left-handed pitcher named McNamara from the Wichita club of the Western league.

Under the agreement, if the world champions retain McNamara after April 15, when the option expires, the Wichita club must be paid $15,000 and given another pitcher.

McNamara is a youngster over six feet tall and in his first season last year in the minor leagues won 17 and lost 15 games.

"Ivory" From Trees

In Colombia, Peru, Ecuador and Brazil, "ivory" grows on trees. It is gathered in the form of hard, white, fine-grained, oval nuts, about the size of a small potato, which drop from the wild tagua, or ivory-nut palm. When dried, vegetable ivory looks like real ivory from elephant tusks.

Large and Small Counties

San Bernardino county, California, is the largest in the United States, with an area of 20,175 square miles, and Bristol county, Rhode Island, with an area of 24 square miles, is the smallest.

"White House" Once Gray

John Adams was the first President to occupy the White House in 1800. In those days it was gray, having been built of Virginia freestone. After the British burned it, in 1814, white paint was used to cover the marks of the fire, and since that time this paint has been renewed regularly. The White House grounds within the iron fence contain 18 acres, while the adjoining White lot has 70 acres.

The Man of Integrity

There is nothing so delightful as the hearing or the speaking of truth. For this reason there is no conversation so agreeable as that of the man of integrity, who hears without any intention to betray, and speaks without any intention to deceive.—Plato.

Making an Appeal.

Mother—"What a naughty little girl you are, telling fibs like that. You can just go to bed without any supper." Offender—"No, I can't, mom. What about that medicine I've got to take after meals?"—New York Sun and Globe.

What Your Checking Account Records

A CHECKING account becomes to its owner a diary of his financial transactions.

One who keeps a check book can look back one year or several, and see how much income he received; and where every dollar of it went.

If he wants to know how much it cost to shingle or paint the house, or to put in a new furnace years ago, the check stub or canceled check tells the story.

Or if he wants to look up his taxes of former years, the record is in his check book.

The canceled check also tells the exact date upon which a payment was made, and who received the money, and acknowledged it with his endorsement.

It is common custom to write upon checks what the payment is for, and "in full of account" if such is the case.

When one wants to classify all his expenditures under different heads, he can do it by reference to the old check books.

With such a record it is easy to make a personal budget.

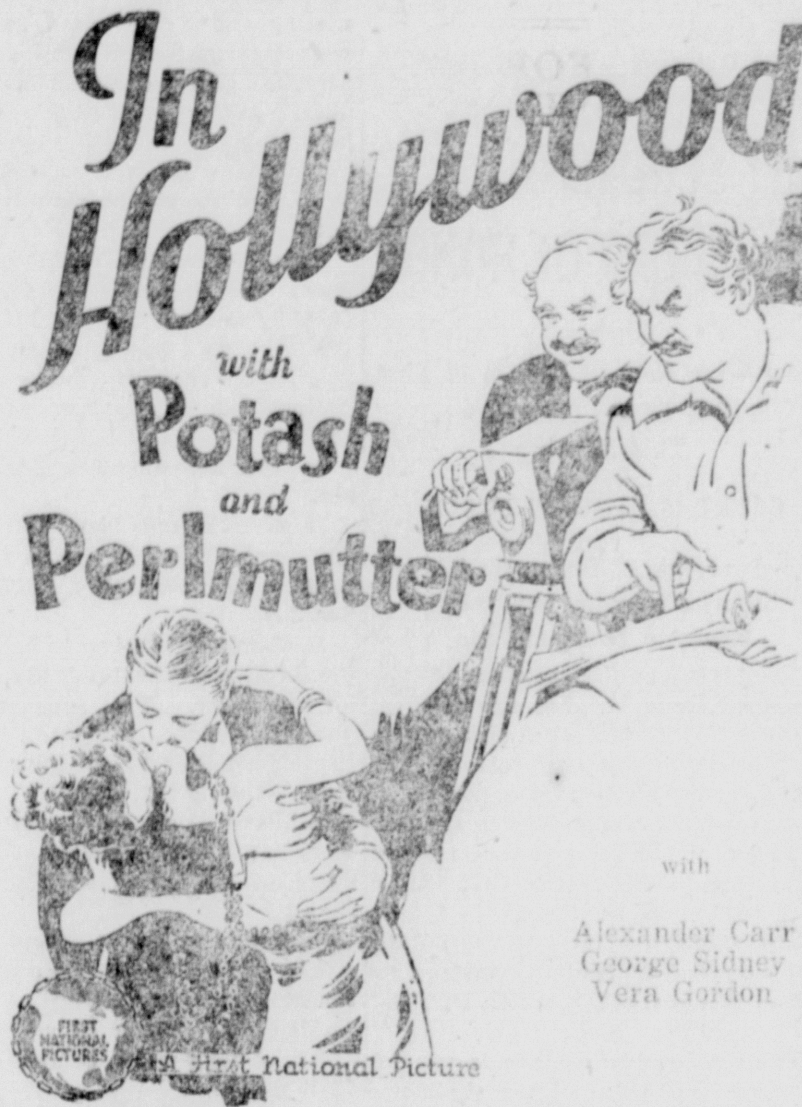

If a tradesman or any other creditor insists that a certain item is unpaid, the canceled check bearing his endorsement will settle the argument.

HEART SET ON AIDING CHURCH

A SIDE of the late Judge Clifton A. Allbright not known by many is the deep interest he took in his church. The period in the fall of the year, when he was first stricken with the malady which eventually claimed him, is reflected in the philosophy of the opening paragraph of this letter he wrote a friend appealing for church aid:

"The past year has been an eventful period in my life. I had never taken life very serious, and my good fortune in having life, health and happiness were taken for granted. I was thoughtless. I had many things to be grateful for which I did not realize. I hope I appreciate more fully than before the wonders of our existence and how much life means. I know I do not fully appreciate my opportunities, but I do hope I can see more in life than ever before.

"During my sickness I spent much time in thought—I had little else to do. It has changed my ideas in connection with many things. The span of life does not appear so long and I realize more fully that it is a slender thread that holds life.

"I know that this has little to do with raising funds for the First Congregational church, but I thought it might interest you. I realize you are a busy, thoughtful and careful man and that you do not act without definite purpose, for which I admire you and respect you. I know that there is a wide difference of opinion as to how such institutions should be supported, maintained and contributions made, but I hope you have a warm spot in your heart for our church.

"You know our history, and must have a kindly feeling for us. I am confident you enjoy thinking you are closely identified with our church. I believe it will give you real pleasure. Our minister is a good man, conscientious and appreciated. I fully believe you feel more at home in our church than you could in another.

"It is hard to urge another what to do in matters of this kind, and I hope you will take my letter in the spirit in which it is written, friendly and earnest. You know more pleasure is received in doing a kindness during life than in leaving an estate after death. No matter how carefully planned a bequest may be, is it not better to personally direct and supervise a gift during life than leave its direction to others after you are gone? This is not an appeal for sympathy but an earnest statement for thought and consideration.

"You may think I am as garrulous as an old woman, but we are noted for being a social animal and I know of no one I could better talk to than you. You are a good listener and I believe sympathetic, and if I can assist the trustees of the church in solving the problem of finances, I shall feel glad. I hope you will feel like responding.

"In conclusion I hope I have interested you. There remains and probably always will be plenty of work for the church. It requires both workers and financiers; one is as important as the other, and fortunate indeed is the church able to command both freely. I hope and trust I may do my part."

CALIFORNIA WRITTEN UP BY "LIFE"

"LIFE" has turned out a special "California" number which in a gentle way satirizes that state and the proclivity of its native sons as well as adopted ones to harp on its beautiful climate. Reading its pages ought to bring balm to the soul of the editor of the Duluth News Tribune who raises goose flesh on his spine every time some one lauds California and indirectly gives Minnesota a poke.

We maintain, and so does every loyal Minnesotan, that when it comes to climate, we have a superior article. We admit, however, that it does rain occasionally and the thermometer may skip down in the northern regions below the zero point. Our summers are incomparable.

California, on the other hand, brags about 100 per cent sunshine the year around and any citizen, as pictured by "Life," who opens an umbrella on a watery or moist day (we won't say rainy day) incurs the wrath of all true Californians and is regarded as a weather traitor.

It will be well worth your time to study the pages of "Life's" special number. "Life" comments: "When they make better sunshine, California will have it." And again, "It takes ten minutes of California sunshine to turn an unbeliever into a booster." "All's fair in love, war and the California weather reports."

Otis C. Little writes on what they ask you in different California cities:

"In Los Angeles: How much did you plan to pay for a home?"

"In San Francisco: Don't you simply love this fog of ours?"

"In Oakland: But haven't we told you that this is a most unusual season?"

"In San Diego: How much did you drop at Tia Juana?"

"In San Quentin: How's bootlegging outside now?"

A NEW thing in parliamentary proceedings is the revolt staged by 15 Democratic state senators of Indiana. They objected to a new gerrymander bill and exhausted all resources, vocal, legal, etc., during the day and at night took a bus and fled the state to Ohio, in order to escape voting. The doorkeeper of the senate has been instructed to bring them back. Ohio claims there is no extradition law to compel their return to Indiana. We wonder if they can continue to draw their salary by so absenting themselves.

THE case of Arthur Lopez, young Mexican who for more than a year posed as Arthur Frazier, dead World war soldier, then is alleged to have admitted the deception by confession and shortly after denied his confession, will now go to the federal grand jury.

THE name of "Anchorage," a southern Alaska town, gives the impression of peace and security. Notwithstanding its cognomen it has been shaken by earthquakes severe enough to tumble hospital patients out of their beds.

THE cold wave came on schedule as predicted by the weather bureau.

Auvergne Hills Traced to Volcanic Upheavals

Although the hills of Auvergne in France do not rise to the altitude of the Alps or the Pyrenees, they have peculiar characteristics of their own. They were born and molded amid great volcanic upheavals. The ice king may govern the glaciers, but here the fire king has reigned, says the Springfield Republican.

The Monts-Dore are one long chain of linked volcanoes, now as dead as the mountains in the moon. Nearly sixty gaping craters may still be counted. Even the Monts Dore and the Cantal hills, whose cone-shaped summits, the highest in Auvergne, stand out so impressively in the distance, are but the time-worn ruins of huge volcanoes.

All the country round about bears lasting traces of its dramatic past; beds of lava hidden by the fresh, green turf; dark pillars, like the famous "Orgues de Bort"; giants' causeways; odd dikes that might be dusky Druid stones; "sucs" and "puys" that might be the pustules of a fever-stricken earth—such are the features which give this central region a strange individuality that has been further intensified by the hand of man.

Twelfth Night Customs Kept Up in England

Many strange and curious rites and customs have long been connected with the observance of Twelfth night. Twelfth night is the evening before Epiphany, the 6th of January, also called Twelfth tide and Old Christmas day.

In England the principal rite of the evening is the cutting of the "bean cake"—a cake in which a bean is cooked, the finder of which is made the king of the night and the following day.

It was in commemoration of this custom that Robert Baddely, an English comedian of the eighteenth century, who was long a favorite at the Drury Lane theater, made one of the strangest requests on record.

Baddely died in 1794, and in his will he bequeathed his cottage to a theatrical fund, requesting that a sum of three pounds be annually expended on a cake, to be cut on Twelfth night, in the Green room of the Drury Lane theater, and divided among the actors and actresses.

Great Naval Station

Malta has an area of 118 square miles and a population of 224,680. This includes the neighboring islands of Gozo and Comino. Malta was annexed to Great Britain, with the free will of the Maltese, in 1814 by the treaty of Paris. It has an elected legislature, but there are certain reserved matters, such as war, treaties, foreign trade, etc., which are dealt with by the governor and executive council. Exports include potatoes and other vegetables, oranges, cummin seed, goats and sheep, cotton goods and stone. The distance of Malta from New York is about 4,300 miles. This group of islands is situated in the Mediterranean sea, 60 miles from Sicily, 140 miles from the European mainland and 180 miles from Africa. It has a magnificent natural harbor at Valetta and an ideal situation as a coaling station and center of Mediterranean commerce. It is England's premier naval station in that sea.

River "Rafts" Nuisances

One of the most remarkable of the Mississippi rafts began forming in the Atchafalaya, a lower arm of the river, in 1778. By 1816 it had become 10 miles long, more than 600 feet in width, about eight feet deep, and had become solid enough to support a forest of trees, some of which were 60 feet in height. Finally the state of Louisiana had to remove the obstruction at great expense, the work occupying four years.

The United States government has since that time removed a raft which blocked the channel of the Red river for 45 miles.

Demonstration Sought

A tramp called at the house of a blunt farmer and asked for food and old clothes.

"You appear to be a stout, hearty-looking man," said the farmer; "what do you do for a living?"

"Why, not much," replied the fellow, "except travel about from one place to another."

"Travel about, ha!" rejoined the farmer; "can you travel pretty well?"

"Oh, yes," returned the beggar, "I'm pretty good at that."

"Well, then," said the farmer, "let's see you travel."

Fortified

One Sunday morning a southern pastor noticed a new attendant at the services.

When the meeting was over the preacher made it his business to speak to the newcomer.

"Rastus," he said, "this is the first time I have seen you at church for a long time. I'm mighty glad to see you here."

"I had to come," replied Rastus. "I needs strengthenin'. I see got a job whitewashin' a chicken coop and buildin' a fence around a watermelon patch."

The Only Way

"I was only acting the part of peace-maker."

Magistrate—But you knocked the man senseless!

Prisoner—I did. There was no other way to get peace.

Some Peculiar Cognomens Assumed by Pugilists

Johnny Dundee's name is Joseph Carrara. Johnny Wilson's is John Panola. Paul Doyle was christened Paul Filippio. Andy Chaney is in the birth records as Andrew Kwasnik. Nobody would ever connect Oscar Tobler with Willie Jackson, nor could Vincenz Agati become reconciled with Jimmy O'Gatty.

Pancho Villa's success started an exodus of Filipinos to this country. The names of some that sound like centers of population are listed above and Elinore Flores is another. Mike Ballerino came from the islands in the Pacific ocean, too. Luis Firpo, Juan Carlos Casta and Luis Vincenzini came up from South America.

France made boxing history by sending forth Georges Carpentier, Eugene Criqui, Marcel Moreau, Charley Ledoux and the strangest of all, Battling Siki. All are "busted" idols now, but they, each in turn, added to the gay whirl of the game that was reconciled only with the Irish.

Men of Celtic origin have not been pushed completely out of the milling hordes for prestige won by fists and the elusive dollar, however. One is the champion of all champions, the marvel of his time, Jack Dempsey. Mickey Walker, Mike McTigue and Gene Tunney are others. But they are alone. Their challengers are Greeks, Italians, Germans and one for Tunney is a Mexican.

Champions Get Call on Western Pitching Star

For Hack Miller, utility infielder, and Dad Hankins, a pitcher, the Washington baseball club, as the result of a deal announced by President Griffith, will obtain an option on a young left-handed pitcher named McNamara from the Wichita club of the Western league.

Under the agreement, if the world champions retain McNamara after April 15, when the option expires, the Wichita club must be paid $15,000 and given another pitcher.

McNamara is a youngster over six feet tall and in his first season last year in the minor leagues won 17 and lost 15 games.

"Ivory" From Trees

In Colombia, Peru, Ecuador and Brazil, "ivory" grows on trees. It is gathered in the form of hard, white, fine-grained, oval nuts, about the size of a small potato, which drop from the wild tagua, or ivory-nut palm. When dried, vegetable ivory looks like real ivory from elephant tusks.

Large and Small Counties

San Bernardino county, California, is the largest in the United States, with an area of 29,175 square miles, and Bristol county, Rhode Island, with an area of 24 square miles, is the smallest.

"White House" Once Gray

John Adams was the first President to occupy the White House in 1800. In those days it was gray, having been built of Virginia freestone. After the British burned it, in 1814, white paint was used to cover the marks of the fire, and since that time this paint has been renewed regularly. The White House grounds within the iron fence contain 18 acres, while the adjoining White lot has 70 acres.

The Man of Integrity

There is nothing so delightful as the hearing or the speaking of truth. For this reason there is no conversation so agreeable as that of the man of integrity, who hears without any intention to betray, and speaks without any intention to deceive.—Plato.

Making an Appeal.

Mother—"What a naughty little girl you are, telling fibs like that. You can just go to bed without any supper." Offender—"No, I can't, mom. What about that medicine I've got to take after meals?"—New York Sun and Globe.

What Your Checking Account Records

A CHECKING account becomes to its owner a diary of his financial transactions.

One who keeps a check book can look back one year or several, and see how much income he received; and where every dollar of it went.

If he wants to know how much it cost to shingle or paint the house, or to put in a new furnace years ago, the check stub or canceled check tells the story.

Or if he wants to look up his taxes of former years, the record is in his check book.

The canceled check also tells the exact date upon which a payment was made, and who received the money and acknowledged it with his endorsement.

It is common custom to write upon checks what the payment is for, and "in full of account" if such is the case.

When one wants to classify all his expenditures under different heads, he can do it by reference to the old check books.

With such a record it is easy to make a personal budget.

If a tradesman or any other creditor insists that a certain item is unpaid, the canceled check bearing his endorsement will settle the argument.

JUDGE UPHOLDS CO-OP CONTRACTS

POTATO ASSOCIATION MEMBERS MUST SELL CROPS TO EXCHANGE

Potato growers who signed a marketing contract with the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange are not only morally but legally bound to deliver to the exchange for sale.

This is the opinion of Judge C. A. Nye of the 7th judicial district, before whom a hearing on a contract violation was held at Moorhead on Feb. 21. The exchange and the Clay County Co-operative Potato Growers' association charged that A. L. Fobes, a member, had sold potatoes outside the association. A temporary injunction had been granted and the hearing was on the question of making the injunction permanent.

While on the witness stand, Mr. Fobes, as well as his son, swore that the son had been given the land before the father signed the contract.

Because the exchange was unable to prove the potatoes in question were the property of Mr. Fobes, and because Mr. Fobes said his own potatoes were still on his farm and that he would deliver them to the exchange warehouse, Judge Nye vacated the temporary injunction. However, he departed from usual court practice and supplemented his official order with a statement.

"I don't want any misunderstanding of the views of the court in regard to the question of whether the potato association is entitled to a permanent injunction, if a breach is proved," he said.

"I will sign written orders which will bear out and express virtually my conclusions. Upon the facts as they appear here, it is purely a question of fact and I am not disposing of the question of law. Viewing the matter as it stands on the record, I do not feel justified in continuing the injunction. The potato association is fully protected insofar as its rights are concerned and its action still stands and will be tried out on its merits, if so desired.

"If a breach of the marketing contract occurs after this time on the part of Mr. Fobes, he is liable and the law gives the plaintiff full remedy in the way of damages. And it also permits the exchange to apply to the court for relief at any time if the defendant refuses to carry out his contract and markets his potatoes elsewhere. The right will be reserved to the plaintiff to apply for further protection which can be made by way of an injunction or otherwise if it should become necessary to do so. "There are apparently quite a few people here who are interested in the case. I don't care what their views are, but what I am going to say may clarify the matter. The potato organization has a very large number of persons and it will be of assistance and of value to producers of potatoes in getting a better result for their labor. I wish to say so far as this district is concerned that the integrity of these contracts, as they are made, will be sustained in every particular so far as I am able to do it."—St. Paul Daily News.

FAMOUS FORTS IN U. S. HISTORY

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

Past It Ran the Historic "Road to Oregon"

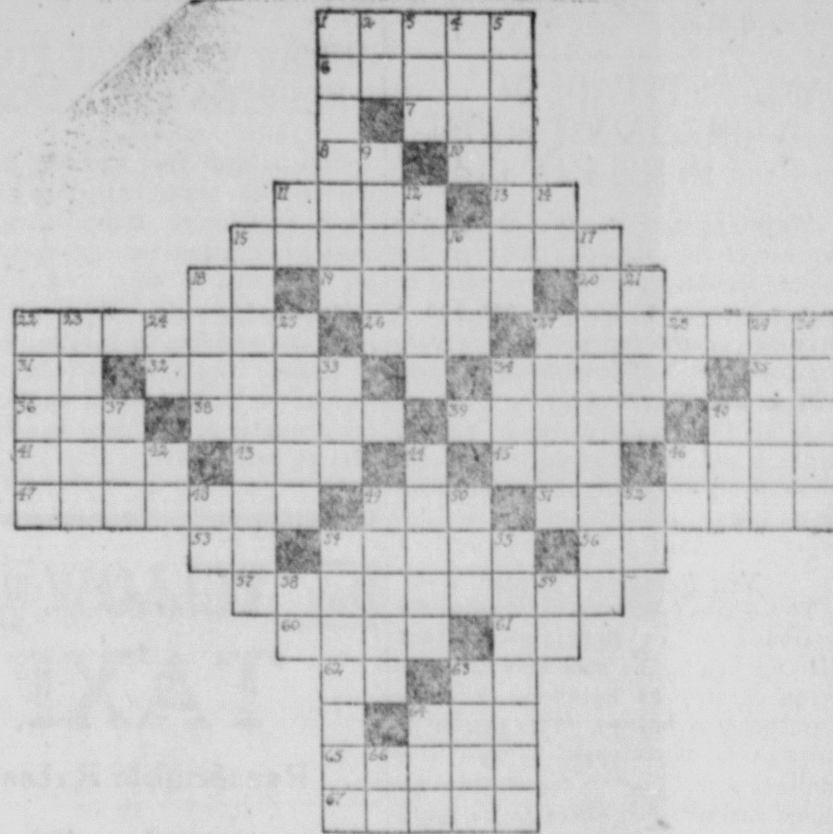

To write the history of the great West without mention of Fort Laramie would be like playing Hamlet without the melancholy Dane. Few posts have played a more stirring part in the story of the frontier than it. From the date of its establishment in 1834 by Robert Campbell, who named it Fort William in honor of William Sublette, his partner in fur trading, down to the end of the Sioux wars, Fort Laramie was always an important center of activity in the northern plains.

The American Fur company renamed it Fort John, in honor of John Sarpy, one of the partners in that company. But even before they dismantled the post and moved it a mile further up the North Platte, some time in the middle 40's, it became known as Fort Laramie, thus helping perpetuate the memory of a certain La Ramie, an early French-Canadian trapper who had lost his life in an encounter with hostile Indians near there.

Although Fort Laramie was one of the best known rendezvous of the old-time mountain men, the most important era in its history began in 1849 when the government purchased the fort from the American Fur company, and it became the military sentinel at the eastern foot of the Rockies. As such it saw that epic migration, the long trains of "covered wagons" go winding past along the Oregon trail, bound for Oregon or California.

The Fort Laramie of a later period was fully as important as it was in the fur trading and emigrant days. Here in 1851 gathered 10,000 Indians of the plains to make a treaty guaranteeing safe conduct for the emigrants, a treaty which was soon reduced to a scrap of paper; from Fort Laramie in 1865 was begun the road to the new Montana gold fields which brought on the Red Cloud war of 1866-67 and the next year Fort Laramie

CO-OP CONTRACTS

POTATO ASSOCIATION MEMBERS

Potato growers who signed a marketing contract with the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange are not only morally but legally bound to deliver to the exchange for sale.

Viewing the matter as it stands on the record, I do not feel justified in continuing the injunction. The potato association is fully protected insofar as its rights are concerned and its action still stands and will be tried out on its merits, if so desired.

"If a breach of the marketing contract occurs after this time on the part of Mr. Fobes, he is liable and the law gives the plaintiff full remedy in the way of damages. And it also permits the exchange to apply to the court for relief at any time if the defendant refuses to carry out his contract and markets his potatoes elsewhere. The right will be reserved to the plaintiff to apply for further protection which can be made by way of an injunction or otherwise if it should become necessary to do so.

"There are apparently quite a few people here who are interested in the case. I don't care what their views are, but what I am going to say may clarify the matter. The potato organization has a very large number of persons and it will be of assistance and of value to producers of potatoes in getting a better result for their labor. I wish to say so far as this district is concerned that the integrity of these contracts, as they are made, will be sustained in every particular so far as I am able to do it."—St. Paul Daily News.

FAMOUS FORTS
IN U. S. HISTORY

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

Past It Ran the Historic
"Road to Oregon"

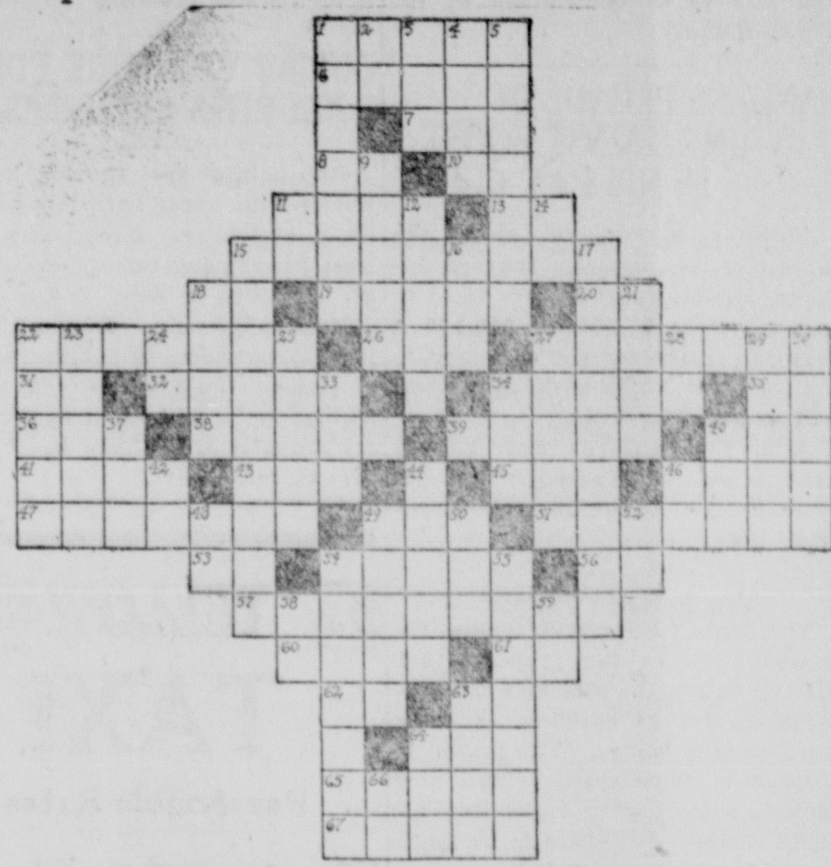

To write the history of the great West without mention of Fort Laramie would be like playing Hamlet without the melancholy Dane. Few posts have played a more stirring part in the story of the frontier than it. From the date of its establishment in 1834 by Robert Campbell, who named it Fort William in honor of William Sublette, his partner in fur trading, down to the end of the Sioux wars, Fort Laramie was always an important center of activity in the northern plains.

The American Fur company renamed it Fort John, in honor of John Sarpy, one of the partners in that company. But even before they dismantled the post and moved it a mile further up the North Platte, some time in the middle 40's, it became known as Fort Laramie, thus helping perpetuate the memory of a certain La Ramie, an early French-Canadian trapper who had lost his life in an encounter with hostile Indians near there.

Although Fort Laramie was one of the best known rendezvous of the old-time mountain men, the most important era in its history began in 1849 when the government purchased the fort from the American Fur company, and it became the military seat at the eastern foot of the Rockies. As such it saw that epic migration, the long trains of "covered wagons" go winding past along the Oregon trail, bound for Oregon or California.

The Fort Laramie of a later period was fully as important as it was in the fur trading and emigrant days. Here in 1851 gathered 10,000 Indians of the plains to make a treaty guaranteeing safe conduct for the emigrants, a treaty which was soon reduced to a scrap of paper; from Fort Laramie in 1865 was begun the road to the new Montana gold fields which brought on the Red Cloud war of 1866-67 and the next year Fort Laramie

IZAACK WALTON LEAGUE CHAPTER

Brainerd Chapter Membership is Increased to Eighty Last Night

ELOQUENT ADDRESSES MADE

Chamber Commerce Meeting Held First, Followed by Talks of Visiting League Members

The charter membership in the Brainerd chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America was increased to over 80 members on Wednesday evening, following the combined League and Chamber of Commerce meeting.

Dean S. Rundlett, vice president of the state department of the Walton League, H. A. Selover and Mel Nyman, directors, made a decidedly good impression on the meeting in their addresses, which covered every phase of the work that has been done and is planned for the future of the organization. These three men made the trip from Minneapolis to Brainerd without pay, standing the expense themselves, to bring the message of Waltonism to this city. All are ardent sportsmen and have been converted to the League because of its attitude toward sportsmen and the program of fish and game conservation that it is promoting.

The ladies of the city were especially invited to be present at Wednesday evening's meeting, but because of the inclemency of the night, did not attend. The Chamber of Commerce parlors were filled, however with an enthusiastic audience, entirely in sympathy with the movement as set forth by the speakers.

The Chamber of Commerce held its regular business session first, which was purposely shortened to allow the visitors to speak. Henry I. Cohen presided during this part of the meeting and introduced the speakers.

Mr. Rundlett gave a very eloquent address on the utility as well as the beauty of outdoor America, dwelling especially on these advantages in Northern Minnesota. He charged that these natural assets, including the fish and game were rapidly disappearing and that it was the mission of the Izaak Walton League not only to stop this, but so far as possible to restore the wild life and preserve it for posterity.

Mel Nyman told of the constructive program which is being worked out nationally and locally by the League, citing in particular the work in Minnesota to establish a wild life and fish refuge. He stated that there is before the present legislature a bill to authorize congress to purchase the bottom lands along the Mississippi river from Lake Pepin to the Iowa line for such a refuge which is the result of the work of the League. It is planned that congress shall designate 300 miles of river bottom for this purpose which would effect the states of Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota, and which would do much toward restoring game and fish life.

The Minnesota division of the League is especially active just at this time, said Mr. Nyman. "We are on the way to really safeguard the great outdoor wealth of the state. Minnesota should have a strong conservation organization. It is a question not only of sentiment, but of dollars and cents that is leading us to a realization of the necessity of such action."

That people throughout the state are entirely in sympathy with this program is shown by the exceptionally rapid growth of the League, said the speaker. The state directorate includes the best known sportsmen in Minnesota, who are enthusiastically giving of their time and money to further the cause. Ten new chapters have just been organized, and as many more are in the process of organization. The movement seems to be sweeping the country by storm and is being supported everywhere as citizens are brought to a realization of the benefits to be derived from the organization.

Mr. Selover called attention to the fact that those living in and about the sections most affected by the work of the League were likely to be indifferent to the danger that is threatening them, that of losing the wild game and fish and the natural assets which are theirs. Unappreciated by many, yet benefiting all, Minnesota's wonderful climate, pine woods, primitive and unspoiled beauty spots and its wild life are diminishing, partly because they are being squandered by visitors and partly because of our own thoughtlessness and wastefulness.

There will come a day, said the speaker, when all of this will be gone if some measures are not taken at once to save and safeguard what there is left and to restore much that has already been taken away. This is the mission of the Izaak Walton League and a plea was made for all interested in this preservation and restoration program to become affiliated with the organization.

Immediately following the meeting those present adjourned to the Lyceum theatre, where four reels of motion pictures were shown, forcefully bringing out many of the arguments used by the speakers at the Chamber.

The first reel was an animal comic in which a brisk little chipmunk played the leading role, keeping the audience in laughter most of the time. This reel was taken in Itasca park only last season and showed Minnesota's natural beauties at their best.

"Where Salmon Leap" was the title of the second reel, and although not showing conditions that affect this state, did depict conditions that come under the watchful eye of the League.

The third picture was "Wild Animals of the Yellowstone" shown, as was the preceding one, through the courtesy of the Northern Pacific railway. The last of the reels was "Minnesota Lakes and Fishes" showing two of the state's resources that the Walton League is endeavoring to conserve.

The charter membership list in the Brainerd chapter is still open and all who are interested and in sympathy with the League's program are urged to join at once. This invitation also includes the ladies, who are eligible and who will be especially welcome. Women all over the country are said to be taking a very active part in the work of the organization and the Brainerd chapter hopes that local women will show the same interest.

At the Chamber of Commerce meeting preceding the Walton meeting, R. R. Gould brought up the matter of a boys' camp on Round lake. Fred Sanborn, coach at St. Thomas college, St. Paul, had written to Mr. Gould stating that this college was planning a summer camp for its boys on the Sanborn property on Round lake, and asked that the Chamber of Commerce assist in the enterprise. The matter was referred to a committee for investigation, the sense of the meeting being that this movement should be supported by the Chamber.

A committee was named to look into the matter of securing a camp site in the neighborhood of Brainerd for the state Y. M. C. A. camp for boys. This committee will be composed of George Lowe Alfred Dillan and C. W. Hoffman.

R. T. Campbell, city engineer, addressed the meeting on the new building ordinance being considered by the city council. He asked that the Chamber give some attention to this ordinance which will be up before the council at its meeting on Monday evening. The president was authorized to appoint a committee to appear before the council in regard to the matter.

EMPHASIZE NEED OF CONSERVATION

Vice President Dean S. Rundlett of State Dept. of Izaak Walton League Speaks

LIONS, CHAMBER MEETINGS

Howard A. Selover and Mel Nyman, State Directors, Also Bring Message

Dean S. Rundlett, vice president of the state department of the Izaak Walton League of America, Howard A. Selover and Mel Nyman, state directors, told of the history, purposes and plans of that organization before the Lions club at its meeting on Wednesday evening. Henry I. Cohen, temporary chairman of the committee that is forming a chapter of the League in Brainerd, and Walter E. Paul, secretary, were also guests of the club.

Mr. Cohen introduced the visitors, each of whom spoke briefly and made a decidedly good impression on their hearers. Mr. Rundlett told of the large way in which Minnesota is advertising to the rest of the world its playground advantages, which includes above all excellent fishing and hunting. As a result of this advertising thousands of tourists are coming to this state and depleting our stock in trade very rapidly, so that, unless conservation is practiced, two of the principal features in our advertising will be "sold out" and valuable tourist business will be lost to some other state that can offer hunting and fishing possibilities.

The Izaak Walton League, said Mr. Rundlett, not only is assisting in the conservation of these great assets, but is improving these assets, replacing those that can be replaced and fostering an educational campaign asking every true sportsman to take only such fish and game as he can use himself, instead of trying to bag the limit, as many are doing.

Mr. Selover discoursed on the need of everyone getting closer to nature, not only to regain lost health, but to retain good health. He stated that of the 25,000 great men of America listed in "Who's Who" in 1925, 74 per cent were born and raised in rural communities, and still in close touch with Dame Nature.

The Izaak Walton League, said Mr. Selover, in addition to conserving fish and game, is also vitally interested in conserving other natural resources and has pledged itself to do its best to restore for posterity the great outdoor America of our ancestors.

Mr. Nyman gave a brief history of the League, which was founded through the unselfish efforts of Will H. Dilg less than three years ago. Mr. Dilg had the dream of saving outdoor America for all present and future Americans and associated with him 55 others who believed as he did. In its very short existence it has grown to approximately 1,000 chapters with a total membership numbering tens of thousands.

The League is an ideal, said Mr. Nyman, pure, clean, righteous and unselfish. It was not formed with the idea of any personal gain for anyone, and none of its officers, with the exception of the general secretary, receives any remuneration. All are giving generously of their time and money without thought of personal gain. It is this spirit that has made the movement so very successful, said the speaker, and which commends it to the public so strongly.

At the close of these talks the Lions club on motion unanimously carried, voted to give the local chapter of the Izaak Walton League its moral support and to work for the principles and ideals for which it stands.

RICKARD EXPECTS BIG FIGHT SEASON

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 26.—After a terrific last summer, during which boxers fell into lean days and promoters almost went broke, Tex Rickard thinks that boxing will come in for a big boom during the coming outdoor season. "The reason?" Rickard says, "Well, the heavyweight class is becoming active and whenever the big fellows are busy, interest develops apace in the lighter classes. Last year Jack Dempsey was idle and so was Benny Leonard, the champion of the next most attractive class and the business went into a general slump."

Rickard's only problem for the coming season is to make the proper choice from a dozen prospective headline bouts—and get the fighters to fight when he makes his choice.

Rickard has on his list the following bouts that he considers to be the best that could be made:

Dempsey vs. Gibbons; Dempsey vs. Wills; Gibbons vs. Wills; Wills vs. Godfrey; Firpo vs. Rojas; Gibbons vs. Tunney; Gibbons vs. Renault; Renault vs. Godfrey; McTigue vs. Berlenbach; Walker vs. Greb; Mandell vs. Lightweight tournament winner and Kaplan vs. Mascart.

You will notice that Rickard lists only two good bouts in the lighter class—Sammy Mandell, the outstanding lightweight contender, against the winner of the tournament organized by the New York Boxing Commission, and Benny Leonard's successor, and a featherweight championship match between Edouard Mascart, French holder of the European championship.

You will notice also that Tom Gibbons is rated by Rickard as about the best drawing card in the country. "The nicest thing about Gibbons, also," he says, "is his willingness to accept any match that can be made for him. He is the easiest fighter to do business with that I have ever dealt with."

Rickard is willing to admit that several of the matches listed cannot be made. Wills will not fight George Godfrey, the big Negro from Philadelphia, and Renault is also afraid of him. Renault, in fact, gets pale when anything but a setup is mentioned for him. It is possible, however, when some of the heavyweights see that they can't dictate their matches and that they are liable to be left on the outside that they will be more reasonable.

If Dempsey does not make up his mind to fight this summer, Rickard regards a Tunney-Gibbons match as the next best attraction. Tunney has turned down several offers to meet Gibbons, but he seems to be in a more willing mood now.

BILLIE DOVE AND HARRY T. MOREY IN
"THE ROUGHNECK," A WILLIAM FOX SPECIAL

Thrilling Battle of Girl With Real Shark Is Shown in Picture

An extraordinary and most thrilling battle between a native Tahitian and a monster man-eating shark was filmed especially for a big climactic scene in the William Fox production of the Robert W. Service novel, "The Roughneck," which is showing at the Lyceum Theatre tonight and Friday. Heraldic was one of the most remarkable "shots" yet recorded by a motion picture camera, this undersea sequence is said to be by far the most amazing piece of cinematic realism ever projected on a screen.

In the story unfolded in this picture the hero, portrayed by George O'Brien, is forced to jump overboard from a liner on which he had been a stowaway in order to avoid being placed in irons and returned to San Francisco where he thought he was wanted on a charge of murder. He makes his daring leap into the sea in a bay five miles from South Sea Isle and soon becomes aware of the fact that these waters are infested with huge sharks. One especially large one is seen to chase him and he narrowly escapes death by much clever swimming and diving.

Famed Cowboy Rider Thrills on the Screen

Roy Stewart, star of several hundred Western film dramas has the biggest and most important role of his whole career in "Sundown," the spectacular epic of the fast-fading cattle country, the current attraction at the New Park Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. Considered one of the best horsemen acting for the screen, Stewart demonstrates his prowess in this stirring picture, especially in the thrilling stampede and the prairie fire scenes.

Potash and Perlmutter a Riot at the New Park

If Montague Glass' famous team of "Potash and Perlmutter" were funny upon the stage, they are twice as funny upon the motion picture screen. And the proof of it is in Samuel Goldwyn's second Abe and Mawruss movie, "In Hollywood With Potash and Perlmutter," which was shown for the first time last night at the New Park Theatre. Much of the humorous dialogue of the play is retained in the sub-titles, and in addition Messrs. Potash and Perlmutter are given a wider field by the motion picture camera for the display of their nimble wits.

There is a fundamental humanness, a blending of humor and pathos in this First National picture that appeals to everyone, regardless of age or sex. The story starts with a chuckle and ends in a riot of laughter.

"In Hollywood With Potash and Perlmutter" is the title of the former clown and suit makers' adventures in the land where motion pictures grow. For the time Abe and Mawruss have elected to become movie magnates.

JACK BERNSTEIN

FAVORED TO WIN LIGHTWEIGHT GO

FORMER JUNIOR CHAMPION IS PICKED TO SURVIVE ELIMINATION TOURNAMENT

TOMMY O'BRIEN BROKE HIS HAND IN HIS FIGHT WITH CHANEY

By HENRY L. FARRELL

New York, Feb. 26.—Jack Bernstein, former junior lightweight champion, is the favorite to survive the lightweight elimination tournament being conducted by the New York boxing commission and to win whatever title the commission can wish on him.

Bernstein was withdrawn from the tournament last week when it was understood that he was not in good condition and did not want to compete. His manager denied this and he was placed back in the competition and will meet Basil Gaianno here Saturday night.

It is possible that the unexpected defeat of George Chanev, the most feared lightweight in the tournament was responsible for Bernstein's quick recovery.

Clyde Jaeckle, a Columbus, Ohio, entry, survived his first round bout by giving George Lee, New England champion, a lacing in 10 rounds last night. He will enter the second round with Eddie Wagner, Jimmy Goodrich, Joe Benjamin and Tommy O'Brien.

Wagner, who lost a queer decision to Jimmy Goodrich, was ordered back into the tournament by William Muldoon, former chairman of the commission, who said that the decision was very bad, and that Wagner should have won the fight.

Tommy O'Brien broke his hand so badly in his fight with Chanev that he may not be able to continue in the tournament. It was said at the office of the commission today that no application for a postponement had been made on behalf of O'Brien.

Several attempts have been made this week to get the consent of Sammy Mandell to enter the tournament. Eddie Kane, his manager, said he could not allow him to compete because he has a bad shoulder and he doesn't like the tournament idea.

The commission probably will want the winner of the elimination recognized as the world's champion. Kid Kaplan was generally accepted as the featherweight champion when he survived the tournament conducted among the contenders for Johnny Dundee's title, but there were more good fighters in the featherweight tournament than there are on the lightweight list. Sammy Mandell is now regarded as the champion and the winner of the tournament cannot get any place with a claim unless he defeats Mandell.

WILLIE RITOLA SETS TWO NEW RECORDS

New York, Feb. 26.—Willie Ritola, Nurmi's greatest rival, increased his list of world's records to eighteen in Madison Square Garden when he made new records for three miles and 5,000 meters. His time for three miles was 13:56.1-5 and for 5,000 meters 14:23 1-5, which cut 7 4-5 seconds off his former record.

Nurmi competed in a special two-mile race and won a hollow victory in 9:14 1-5.

Joie Ray, Chicago, made a new record of 2:29 3-5 for 1,000 meters.

Austria and Hungary May Enter Olympics

London, Feb. 26.—The council of the British Lawn Tennis association will submit to the international federation at its meeting in Paris March 26 a resolution favoring exclusion of lawn tennis from the Olympics. The association has also decided to favor admitting Austria and Hungary to the 1928 Olympic games.

DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST KEARNS IS DISMISSED

Los Angeles, Feb. 26.—The $200,000 damage suit against Jack Kearns, brought by Mrs. C. Tenney, in which she accused him of assault, was dismissed by the jury in superior court 30 minutes after it was referred to them, completely exonerating Kearns.

Rheumatism

First stop the pain

In rheumatism, the quickest thing is to stop the pain. A modern way does that so quickly that it seems like magic.

Nothing else applies such concentrated, such penetrating heat as red pepper. And heat that doesn't hurt. Every old method seems ridiculous in comparison.

Apply Red Pepper Rub and the tingling heat is apparent instantly. In three minutes it seems to reach the depths. Circulation is started, congestion is relieved. Pain and soreness depart.

The cause of rheumatism may be deeper. But the pain can be relieved like magic this way.

Then why spend hours in suffering? Why toss all night? Relief is a matter of moments if you have Red Pepper Rub on hand. Then, night or day, you have the best means modern scientists know to combat it.

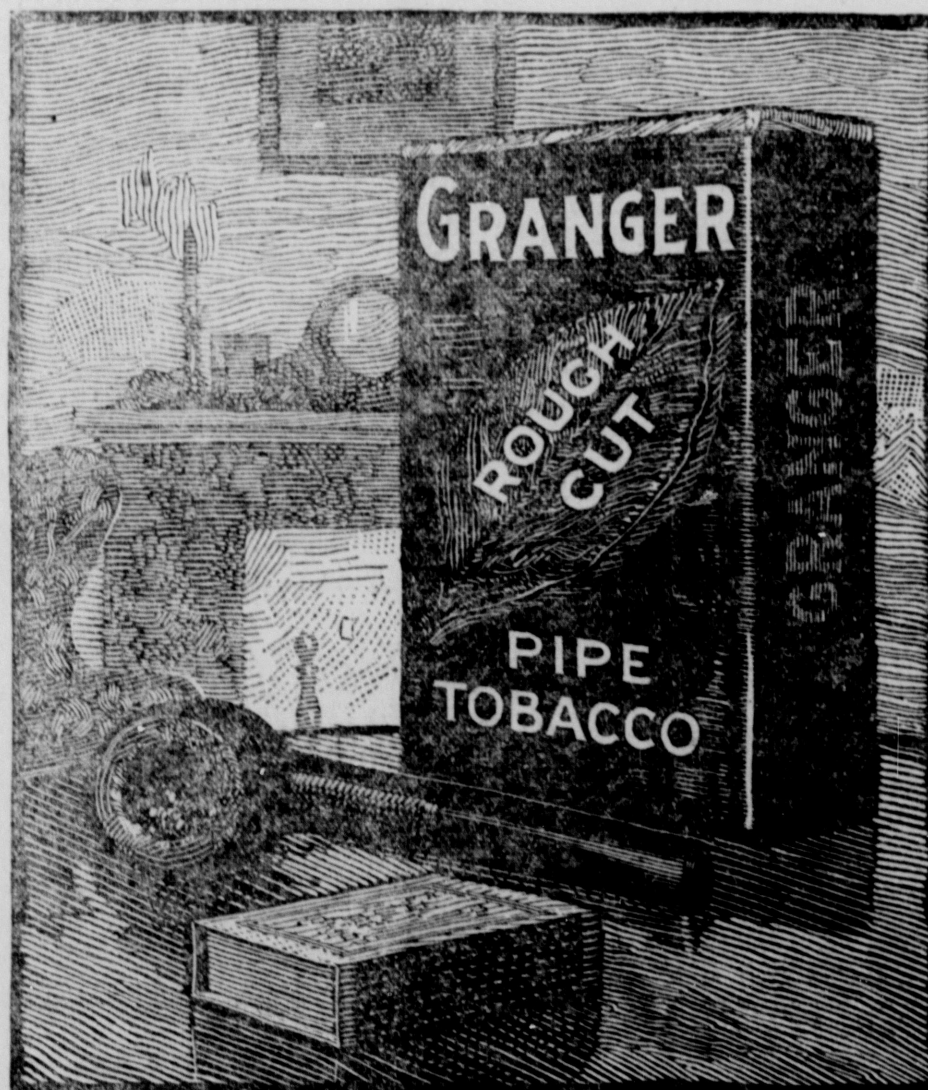

Think what folly it is to suffer for hours the pains or soreness which a moment can stop.

SAFE FAT REDUCTION

Why be fat? The answer of most fat people is that constant dieting is hard, continual exercise is tiresome and exhaustive—and then, too, it might be harmful to force the weight down. That was the old-fashioned idea. Today in Marmola Prescription Tablets all these difficulties are overcome. Just a pleasant little tablet after each meal and at bedtime causes fat to vanish. This modern method is easy, entails no dieting or exercising and has the added advantage of cheapness.

Get a box of these tablets and start taking them now. Within a short time you will be getting rid of fat steadily and easily without starvation diet or tiresome exercise. You will be comfortable and able to enjoy the food you like and want. Even after taking off many pounds, there will be no flabbiness or wrinkles remaining. You will feel 100 per cent better. Don't wait for internal effects. Get instant relief. Fight the trouble at its source. Clear the air passages, check the attack. A moment will do that if you ask your druggist for a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm.—Adv

Its coolness and mellow
"body" are a revelation
to pipe smokers

Back about 1870, James N. Wellman developed a secret tobacco process which won instant and widespread favor. It yielded a fuller-bodied richness, mildness and fragrance which just seemed to "go" with a pipe. No one else ever knew his secret until we acquired "Wellman's Method" and by its means made "Granger Rough Cut"

Rheumatism

First stop the pain

In rheumatism, the quickest thing is to stop the pain. A modern way does that so quickly that it seems like magic.

Nothing else applies such concentrated, such penetrating heat as red pepper. And heat that doesn't hurt. Every old method seems ridiculous in comparison.

Apply Red Pepper Rub and the tingling heat is apparent instantly. In three minutes it seems to reach the depths. Circulation is started, congestion is relieved. Pain and soreness depart.

The cause of rheumatism may lie deeper. But the pain can be relieved like magic this way.

Then why spend hours in suffering? Why toss all night? Relief is a matter of moments if you have Red Pepper Rub on hand. Then, night or day, you have the best means modern scientists know to combat it.

Think what folly it is to suffer for hours the pains or soreness which a moment can stop.

SAFE FAT REDUCTION

Why be fat? The answer of most fat people is that constant dieting is hard, continual exercise is tiresome and exhaustive—and then, too, it might be harmful to force the weight down. That was the old-fashioned idea. Today in Marmola Prescription Tablets all these difficulties are overcome. Just a pleasant little tablet after each meal and at bedtime causes fat to vanish. This modern method is easy, entails no dieting or exercising and has the added advantage of cheapness.

Get a box of these tablets, and start taking them now. Within a short time you will be getting rid of fat steadily and easily without starvation diet or tiresome exercise. You will be comfortable and able to enjoy the food you like and want. Even after taking off many pounds, there will be no flabbiness or wrinkles remaining. You will feel 100 per cent better. All drug stores the world over sell Marmola Prescription Tablets at one dollar for a box, or the Marmola Company, General Motors Building, Detroit, Mich., will gladly send them to you on receipt of the price.—Adv.
